

Working student – software development

Your tasks will be:

- Participation in the design and development of applications and add-ons on the technological basis of SAP BTP as a pair of layers for business apps
- Further development of existing SaaS solutions in dialogue with product management
- Supporting our customers in the further development and use of our products
- From the idea to the finished application, you are involved in the entire Software development cycle on the SAP Business Technology Platform and its services

Your bring with you

- University studies in computer science or business informatics or related (physics, mathematics)
- open-minded person who enjoys working in a team
- First experience with HTML5, JavaScript, Java and DB knowledge (SQL, SAP HANA, database modeling)
- Any initial knowledge of cloud environments, software engineering as well as SAP BTP or other development platforms is appreciated
- Creativity and enjoyment of modern technologies
- Solid command of English (written/spoken) is required

What we offer:

Flexible working hours

flat hierarchies

team support

Beverages

mobile working

open cooperative working culture

The operayo GmbH is located in the heart of Bielefeld. In our work we focus on B2B-SaaS-Applications that employs modern SAP-Cloud-technology. This is how we provide a real benefit to SAP customers and their partners.

just simply send us an informal application:

laura.brickmann@operayo.de

